DeKalb Clerk Debra DeBerry and Tyler Technologies to Offer CLE Training on re:SearchGA Portal

DECATUR, GA – DeKalb County Superior Court Clerk Debra DeBerry and Tyler Technologies are hosting a series of free CLE lunch and learn training sessions on re:SearchGA.

“We are excited to provide simple and secure access to court documents for the legal community to all courts in DeKalb County,” stated Clerk Debra DeBerry. “Launching re:SearchGA puts us in compliance with Senate Bill 407’s mandate for online access to court records. Our courts are also Tyler Odyssey clients, so those using the portal will have access to case filings and documents spanning decades.”

Re:SearchGA allows access for clerks, judges, attorneys, media and justice partners, including the district attorney offices and law enforcement and while providing transparency in our courts.

The training courses will be offered in a series of Friday lunch and learn training sessions. Classes are held in the Jury Assembly Room on the First Floor of the DeKalb County Courthouse located at 556 N. McDonough Street, Decatur, GA 30030.

CLE Credit: Georgia Bar CLE certification—Course ID 250084 for 1 hour of Regular CLE Hours.
