FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JANUARY 18, 2019

Clerk DeBerry to aid federally furloughed employees

Collaborates with DeKalb Sheriff Mann, churches and local organizations

Decatur, GA – Clerk Debra DeBerry is supporting federally furloughed employees by partnering with: DeKalb Sheriff Jeffrey Mann, Berean Christian Church, New Birth Missionary Baptist Church, DeKalb Section of National Council of Negro Women (NCNW), South DeKalb Rotary, and JABY, Inc. to provide some relief to impacted families.

“The partial government shutdown is affecting many fellow public servants, some still reporting to work without pay. These families are a priority and need any assistance we can provide during this difficult time – it is only right and humane” says Clerk DeBerry.

Collections will continue for the duration of the furlough. Please visit www.dksuperiorclerk.com for additional resources or call 404-371-2251 for more information.
