CIVIL ACTION FILE NUMBER

STANDING ORDER GOVERNING ALL DOMESTIC CASES

This Order binds the parties in the above-styled action, their employees and all other persons acting in concert with such parties:

1.

In any domestic relations case pending as of January 1, 2007 or filed thereafter in which alimony, equitable division of property, child support or attorneys fees is an issue, either contested or uncontested, both parties must file a sworn financial affidavit in the form required by Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.2. The Department of Child Support Services is exempt from filing financial affidavits pursuant to the revised Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.2. At least fifteen (15) days before any temporary or final hearing in any action for temporary or permanent child support, alimony, equitable division of property, modification of child support or alimony or attorney fees, the party requesting such hearing shall file with the Clerk of Court and serve upon the opposing party the affidavit specifying his or her financial circumstances. Within five (5) days of service, the opposing party shall file and serve the affidavit specifying his or her financial circumstances.

Additionally, when child support is at issue, the parties must also file the worksheet schedules in the form required by O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15. The parties shall comply with the responsibilities that are enumerated in the attached "Exhibit A" to this document to be served with the pleadings.

In any domestic relations case in which the care, custody or support of a child under the age of 18 years of age is involved, whether contested or uncontested, all parties are required to successfully complete the Families in Transition seminar within thirty-one (31) days of service of the original complaint upon the original defendant. Failure to successfully complete the seminar as required shall subject the party to contempt or other sanctions, unless excused by the Court for good cause shown.

3.

In any domestic relations case in which the care, custody or support of a child under the age of 18 years of age is involved, whether contested or uncontested, all parties are required to either individually or jointly file a Parenting Plan pursuant to Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.10. The Parenting Plan should be tailored to fit the needs of each individual family but must at a minimum contain the information required by O.C.G.A. § 19-9-1. All plans shall be submitted in appropriate forms as set forth in Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.10.

4.

Attorneys or self-represented litigants shall promptly advise the appropriate calendar clerk whenever it is apparent that physical placement of the child(ren) of the parties is contested.

5.

Where physical placement of the parties' child(ren) is contested, the parties shall make a good faith effort to mediate these differences prior to any court hearing on custody or visitation issues. The purpose of said mediation is to reduce the tension between the parties and to seek an agreement assuring the child(ren) the proper amount of contact with each parent. The judge in a specific matter may waive this provision of the order when, in the exercise of his or her discretion, it is appropriate to do so.

6.

One (1) hour of mediation services are available to the parties at the DeKalb County Courts Dispute Resolution Center, (404) 370-8194, at no charge. The mediator shall be a qualified person or agency designated or approved by the Court or by the Director of the DeKalb Courts Multi-Door Courthouse project. The mediation shall be conducted in accordance with the local Program Rule of Procedures for the DeKalb County Courts Multi-Door Courthouse Project.

7.

The parties and the mediator shall use their best efforts to effect a settlement of physical placement issues. With the consent of the parties, mediation may be expanded to include any contested issues.

8.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from causing or permitting the minor child(ren) of the parties to be removed from the jurisdiction of this Court.

9.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from doing, or attempting to do, or threatening to do, any act injuring, maltreating, vilifying, molesting or harassing the adverse party or the child(ren) of the parties.

10.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from selling, encumbering, trading, contracting to sell or otherwise disposing of or removing from the jurisdiction of the Court any of the property belonging to the parties jointly or individually except in the ordinary course of business.

11.

Each party is hereby prohibited from disconnecting, or causing the disconnection of water, gas, electricity or any other utility service from the marital residence.

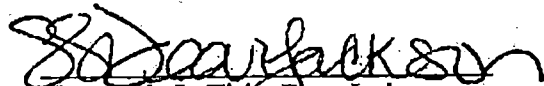

12.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from altering, suspending or terminating any insurance coverage in effect as of the date of the filing of this action, including, but not limited to, health insurance, supplemental health insurance, dental insurance, vision insurance, automobile insurance, long term disability insurance, short term disability insurance, life insurance (whole life and/or term) and/or changing any beneficiary designations on any life insurance policy(ies).

This Order shall apply to all domestic cases as defined by Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.1 and shall be a standing order until further action of this Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

This 8th day of May, 2023.

Honorable LaTisha Dear Jackson
Chief and Administrative Judge
DeKalb County Superior Court
Stone Mountain Judicial Circuit

Exhibit A to
Standing Order Governing All Domestic Cases

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF DEKALB COUNTY
STATE OF GEORGIA

NOTICE OF CHILD SUPPORT REQUIREMENTS

You are hereby notified that in accordance with O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15 and Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.2, as amended, and the Standing Orders of the Stone Mountain Judicial Circuit, you must comply with the following requirements:

The Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit (in substantially the form provided in U.S.C.R. 24.2, as amended), child support worksheets and child support schedules, in the form promulgated by the Georgia Child Support Commission¹ shall be filed and served on the opposing party:

- (a) at least fifteen (15) days prior to any temporary or final hearing;
- (b) at least ten (10) days prior to any court-ordered mediation; or
- (c) either with the answer or thirty (30) days after service of the complaint, whichever first occurs, if no application for a temporary award is made and the parties do not attend mediation.

In any case in which a party has previously filed and served the affidavit, worksheets, or schedules and thereafter amends, any such amendments shall be served upon the opposing party at least ten (10) days prior to the final hearing or trial and shall be filed with the Clerk of Court at or before trial. No social security numbers or account numbers shall be included in any document filed with the Court. Each account shall be specified by financial institution and a partial account number.

Failure of any party to furnish financial information may subject a party to the penalties of contempt and may result in continuance of the hearing or other penalties.

Any party who intends to submit a proposed worksheet and the accompanying schedules to the Court electronically shall do so in accordance with U.S.C.R. 24.2, as amended, and shall provide the opposing party a copy of the submission, either electronically or by printed copy. Electronic submission is not a substitute for filing with the Clerk of Court.
